

SAINT BRIDGET HOSPITAL DATA PROTECTION POLICY

1. IMPORTANT INFORMATION

1.1 We are glad you are taking time to read the Saint Bridget Hospital's ("Hospital", "we", "us", "our") General Data Privacy Policy.

1.2 We respect your privacy and we are committed to processing personal data in accordance with the law and in particular, the Data Protection Act, 2019 (the "Act").

1.3 This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, share, and store (in other words, Process) personal data of third-party service providers (in the case of corporate entities, this refers to their individual representatives), potential employees seeking employment with us and, generally, members of the public (referred to as "you" or "your" in this Privacy Policy).

1.4 It is important that you read this Privacy Policy together with any other related privacy policy or privacy notice (Other Privacy Documents) we may provide from time to time, regarding Processing personal data about you (or personal data you provide), so that you are fully aware of how and why we are using such data. This Privacy Policy adds to such Other Privacy Documents and is not intended to override them.

1.5 Please note that we have a separate privacy policy for our patients, their families and other individuals who may use our healthcare services. Please contact us for a copy of such Policy.

1.6 We will regularly review this Privacy Policy. This version was last updated on 1st April 2024.

2. WHO WE ARE

2.1 The Hospital is a "DATA CONTROLLER" in relation to the Processing activities described below. This means that we determine the purpose and means of Processing your personal data (or personal data you provide).

2.2 The Hospital is registered as a "DATA CONTROLLER" with the Office of the Data Protection Commissioner.

2.3 Our DPO is responsible for our data protection function. You can find contact details for our DPO Department team at the end of this Privacy Policy.

3. THE TYPES OF "PERSONAL DATA" THAT WE COLLECT AND PROCESS

3.1 "Personal data" means any information that can be used to identify an individual natural person. Please note that there are "special categories" of personal data that are more sensitive and require a higher level of protection. The personal data we collect will vary according to the circumstances surrounding our relationship with you.

3.2 We will collect, use, store, share or otherwise Process personal data about you (or persons connected to you) including

- t) recording and/or monitoring telephone conversations to maintain service quality and security, for staff training and fraud monitoring and to deal with complaints, disputes and potential and/or actual criminal activity. To the extent permitted by law, these recordings are our sole property,
- u) for research and other statistical and trend analysis (de-identifying and aggregating or anonymizing source data with that of other clients and institutions in such way that it is not possible to reverse-engineer and re-identify you), and
- v) complying with applicable laws and regulations.

7. LEGAL BASIS FOR PROCESSING YOUR PERSONAL DATA (OR PERSONAL DATA YOU PROVIDE)

7.1 We will only collect, use, and share your personal data (or personal data you provide) where we are satisfied that one of the following legal grounds apply to a specific Processing activity:

- a) The Processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are a party or to take steps, at your request, prior to entering such contract.
- b) The Processing is necessary for the legitimate interests pursued by us or those of a third party to whom personal data is disclosed, except where such interests are overridden by your interests or rights and freedoms which require protection of personal data. We believe that we have a legitimate interest in Processing personal data for the purposes set out above, and to support the achievement of our immediate and long-term business goals and outcomes.
- c) The Processing is necessary for us to comply with a legal obligation to which we are subject, for example, providing information on request to government entities or regulatory authorities; and conducting compliance activities such as audit and reporting, maintenance of accounting and tax records or anti-money laundering.

d)The Processing is based on your consent. We will rely on your consent as a lawful basis for Processing personal data, as appropriate, including the Processing of personal data relating to a child, Processing sensitive personal data outside Kenya, Processing your personal data for the purpose of direct marketing to you and where you have provided us with your consent.

Where you have provided your consent to the Processing of your personal data for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific Processing at any time. Please note that by withdrawing your consent, the withdrawal will not render unlawful our prior Processing of your personal data or the Processing which is based on other legal bases for Processing of your personal data.

e)The Processing is necessary to protect your interests (or someone else's interests).

f)The Processing is necessary to perform a task carried out in the public interest or for official purposes.

7.2 Some of the above grounds for Processing will overlap and there may be several grounds which justify our use of your personal data (or personal data you provide).

8. CHANGE OF PURPOSE

8.1 We will use your personal data (or personal data you provide) solely for the purposes for which it was collected, unless we reasonably believe that we need to use it for another reason that is compatible with the original purpose.

8.2 If we need to use your personal data (or personal data you provide) for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you, explain our legal grounds for the change and obtain your consent to Process your personal data (or personal data you provide) for that unrelated purpose.

8.3 Please note that we may Process your personal data (or personal data you provide) without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

9. COOKIES

9.1 Please note that in order to improve our internet service to you, we will occasionally use a "cookie" and/or other similar technologies which may place certain information on your computer's hard drive when you visit our website or any of the Hospital's affiliated websites.

9.2 A cookie is a small amount of data that our web server sends to your web browser when you visit certain parts of our site.

9.3 We may collect cookies through, inter alia:

a) information about your use of our services and about the device you use to access our services,

b) the pages you request and visit and any posts you submit,

c) information on your interaction with other pages,

d) information obtained during maintenance or support of our website,

e) information about your device such as MAC and IMEI numbers, your IP address, and the URLs of sites from which you arrive or leave our website, and

f) your type of browser, your operating system, your mobile or internet service provider and the make and size of your device (such as for page displays and interoperability).

9.4 We use cookies to do many different jobs, like letting you navigate between pages efficiently, identifying you after you have logged in by storing a temporary reference number in the cookie, allowing you to access stored information if you register for any of our online platforms, and generally improving your online experience.

9.5 Cookies do not enable us to gather personal data about you unless you give the information to our server. Most Internet browser software allows the blocking of all cookies or enables you to receive a warning before a cookie is stored.

10. WHO DO WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL DATA (OR PERSONAL DATA YOU PROVIDE) WITH?

10.1 We will disclose your personal data (or personal data you provide) to any of the following as appropriate:

a) our partner organisations,

b) our external service providers where we outsource certain functions, including but not limited to, our IT and office systems, administrative services providers, and research companies. We will only disclose personal data to our external service providers when it is essential for them to provide their service and we have a contract in place that requires them to keep your information secure and not to use it other than in accordance with our specific instructions,

c) funders and sponsors of the Hospital,

d) our professional service providers (e.g., legal advisors, accountants, auditors, insurers and tax advisors),

e) legal advisors, government and law enforcement authorities and other persons involved in, or contemplating, legal proceedings,

f) competent regulatory, prosecuting, tax or governmental authorities, courts or other tribunals in any jurisdiction,

g) other persons where disclosure is required by law or to enable products and services to be provided to you (or where applicable the corporate entity you are connected to),

h) any other relevant professional or statutory regulatory bodies,

i) establish, exercise, or defend our legal rights including providing information to others and/or in connection with any ongoing or prospective legal proceedings,

j) prospective buyers as part of a sale, merger, or other disposal of any of our business or assets; and

k) any other person you have authorised us by your consent to share your personal data with.

10.2 In all the cases cited above, we require all parties we share your personal data (or personal data you provide) with to respect the security of your personal data (or personal data you provide) and treat it in accordance with the law. Please note that we do not allow our external service providers to use your personal data (or personal data you provide) for their own purposes and only permit them to Process your personal data (or personal data you provide) for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

10.3 Please note that if you request us, in writing, to share your personal data (or personal data you provide) with third parties, we will follow your request to share the relevant information. However, we do not have control over how those third parties will use your information. Before you make your request, we recommend that you (or the person acting on your behalf) consider the data protection practices of that third party by reading their privacy policies or contacting them.

11. DATA SECURITY

11.1 We have put in place appropriate physical and technical measures to safeguard your personal data (or personal data you provide) from being accidentally lost, used, or accessed in an unauthorised way.

11.2 For example, we will limit access to your personal data (or personal data you provide) to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties that require it for legitimate business purposes. They will only Process your personal data (or personal data you provide) on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

11.3 We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach if required by law.

12. THE RETENTION AND STORAGE OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA (OR PERSONAL DATA YOU PROVIDE)

12.1 We will only retain your personal data (or personal data you provide) for as long as necessary to accomplish the purposes for which it was collected, including complying with any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

12.2 We may retain your personal data (or personal data you provide) for a longer period if the retention is:

- a) required or authorised by law,
- b) reasonably necessary for a lawful purpose,
- c) authorised or consented by you,
- d) for personal data that has been anonymised, or
- e) for historical, statistical, journalistic, literature and art or research purposes.

12.3 In some circumstances we may anonymise your personal data (or personal data you provide) so that it can no longer be associated with you, in which case we may use such information without further notice to you.

13. YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS

13.1 Subject to certain exceptions and limitations, you have a number of legal rights in relation to the personal data that we hold about you (or persons connected to you). These rights include the right to:

- a) be informed of the use to which your personal data (or personal data you provide) is to be used,
- b) request access to your personal data (or personal data you provide) and receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you,
- c) request correction and erasure of the personal data that we hold about you,
- d) request the restriction of Processing of your personal data (or personal data you provide). This enables you to ask us to suspend the Processing of your personal data (or personal data you provide),
- e) request us to transfer personal data either to you or to another company in a commonly used electronic format. This is known as the right to data portability,
- f) object to the Processing of your personal data (or personal data you provide),
- g) object and opt-out of our direct marketing services, and

h) request not to be subject to automated decision making. This enables you to ask us not to make a decision about you that affects your legal position (or has some other significant effect on you) based purely on automated Processing of your data.

13.2 To exercise any of these rights, please write to Data Protection Officer via the contact details given below.

13.3 We will respond to your request without undue delay and no later than the time periods stipulated by the applicable Data Protection Legislation.

14. CONTACT US AND FURTHER INFORMATION

14.1 If you have any questions about this Privacy policy or how we handle your personal data (or personal data you provide), please contact info@stbridgethospital.co.ke.

14.2 We will respond to your questions and concerns in a timely manner and in compliance with the relevant laws.

15. CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

15.1 We reserve the right to update this Privacy Policy at any time and we shall notify you of the changes through electronic mail or such other means of communication which may be available to us.

15.2 We may also notify you in other ways from time to time about the Processing of your personal data (or personal data you provide).
